

From October 4 to 7, Quebec City welcomes you

The top eight reasons to come to ICC 2008

8 Quebec City's historical charm

An interlude to highlight Quebec City's 400th anniversary, the only walled city in Canada - French Canadian culture and... Maple Syrup!

7 Variety of Keynote speakers and workshop facilitators

- > Bring your team - stimulate a better understanding of the vision and challenges our camps have on a world scale as well as ecological actions through organized camping with other camp professionals.
- > Understand who we are, who are partners are, what our common grounds are, the shared issues and the impact of our actions.
- > There will be over 100 workshops and conferences.

6 Networking

- > Meet multi-national camping professionals.
- > Over 700 delegates from across the world will be welcomed.
- > Enjoy an international camp fire!
- > Have the opportunity to wear your nation's traditional costumes.
- > See a Québécois dance troop as well as a children's choir.

5 Visit camps from coast to coast

- > Meet their directors/owners.
- > Join the much anticipated tradition of visiting camps across Canada (you can start in Vancouver or join in anywhere in the country).

4 An exhibit hall where over 70 suppliers will be present

3 Accommodations are all within walking distance of the conference center

2 Free-time to take advantage of Old Quebec City which will be dressed in its beautiful breathtaking autumn colours

Enjoyed the restaurants, nightlife, museums, Historical sites.

1 Come have a great time!!!

